

4th AMSE Summer School

Political economy: institutions and media

PROGRAM

June 12-14, 2023

Venue: AMU/AMSE, 5 boulevard Maurice Bourdet, Marseille - Room 24

Web app: <https://amse.app>

Monday, June 12

8:30am - 8:55am	Welcome coffee and registration [Ground floor]
8:55am - 9:00am	Welcome speech by Céline Poilly
9:00am - 10:30am	Course “The political economy of traditional and social media” Maria PETROVA, Univ Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona Institute for Political Economy and Governance
10:30am - 11:00am	Coffee break [Ground floor]
11:00am - 12:30pm	Course “The political economy of traditional and social media” Maria PETROVA, Univ Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona Institute for Political Economy and Governance
12:30pm - 1:30pm	Lunch [Ground floor]
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Course “The political economy of traditional and social media” Maria PETROVA, Univ Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona Institute for Political Economy and Governance
2:30pm - 4:00pm	Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper) <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The Press, Petitions and the Progressive Era: The effect of newspaper entry on collective action in the United States (1870-1920) Jori KORPERSHOEK, Erasmus University Rotterdam</li><li>2. Regulation of Social Media and the Evolution of content: a cross-platform analysis Marina RIZZI, Collegio Carlo Alberto &amp; University of Turin</li><li>3. Misogyny and xenophobic hate language online: A matter of anonymity Joakim JANSSON, Research Institute of Industrial Economics</li></ol>
5:00pm - 6:20pm	Marseille little touristic train for discovering the most beautiful views of the city Meeting point: 174 Quai du port, 13002 Marseille
6:20pm - 7:00pm	Free time
7:00pm	Dinner “Les Grandes Halles du Vieux-Port”, 30 Cours Honoré d'Estienne d'Orves, 13001 Marseille

Aix-Marseille School of Economics is a department of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Aix-Marseille University

4th AMSE Summer School

Political economy: institutions and media

Tuesday, June 13

8:30am - 10:30am Course “Political Economy of Opaque Autocracies: Using Theory to Understand Governance Data”
Patrick FRANCOIS, University of British Columbia, Vancouver School of Economics

10:30am - 11:00am Coffee break [Ground floor]

11:00am - 1:00pm Course “Political Economy of Opaque Autocracies: Using Theory to Understand Governance Data”
Patrick FRANCOIS, University of British Columbia, Vancouver School of Economics

1:00pm - 2:00pm Lunch [Room 21]

2:00pm - 3:30pm Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper)

4. The Politics of Repeal
Alvaro DELGADO VEGA, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid
5. Information About Corruption and Politicians’ Proposals
Guillermo LEZAMA, University of Pittsburgh
6. Redistribution in the Context of Political Regime Change
Laura ARAUJO DE FREITAS, University of Cambridge

3:30pm - 4:00pm Coffee break [Ground floor]

4:00pm - 5:00pm Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper)

7. Support for state intervention and perceptions of income rank: evidence from panel data
Federico GONZALEZ ETCHEBEHERE, Aix-Marseille University, AMSE
8. Play to your Strengths: Incumbency effect and issue emphasis in Brazilian local elections
Leila PEREIRA, Insper Instituto de Ensino e Pesquisa

5:30pm Departure by bus for The Corniche Kennedy
Meeting point: Bus stop in front of the Ibis hotel, Square Narvik, 13001 Marseille

6:10pm - 7:30pm Free time: you can sunbathe, go for a walk, or plunge into the Mediterranean, get your swimsuits and towels ready!

7:30pm Dinner “Chez Jeannot”, 129 Rue du Vallon des Auffes, 13007 Marseille

Aix-Marseille School of Economics is a department of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Aix-Marseille University

Wednesday, June 14

9:00am - 10:30am Course “Models on the Joint Evolution of Institutions and Identity: Applications to Religion, and Corruption”
Avner SEROR, Aix-Marseille University, AMSE

10:30am - 11:00am Coffee break [Ground floor]

11:00am - 12:30pm Course “On the political decisions makers”
Marc SANGNIER, Aix-Marseille University, AMSE

12:30pm - 1:30pm Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper)

9. The Role of Opinion Polls in Coordination Amongst Protest Voters: An Experimental Study
Oliver FELTHAM, University of Amsterdam
10. Do policy-makers update their views and who do they listen to? Lobbying and participatory democracy in the EU
Rosanne LOGEART, Paris School of Economics

1:30pm - 2:30pm Lunch [Ground floor]

2:30pm - 4:00pm Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper)

11. Falling from turbulence: A survival analysis of the IMF executive board members (2009 - 2021)
Elie ISRAEL, Université de Lille
12. Silver Tongues vs. Ready Fists: Violent Protests and Eloquent Tweets
Thomas SCHILLER, Leibniz University Hannover
13. The Geography of Fiscal Oversight: Evidence from German Municipalities
Oliver MÄRTZ, German University of Administrative Sciences Speyer